

Michael Gillen captures the 2024 school presentees

Queen Ella Black's fellow pupils opted for a Willy Wonka theme and did her, their school and themselves proud.

The Tartan Army from St Mary's Primary School were flying the flag for their town and country.

The pupils at Boness Public School went back in time, opting to travel back to the 1990s.

Blackness Primary School pupils, parents and staff looked like they were having a great time too.

Grange Primary School pupils looked amazing in their country gear for their moment in the spotlight.

Cruella looked a little more colourful than usual thanks to the boys and girls at Kinneil Primary School.
