

NEWS

Did Michael Gillen pap you on his way round town?!

We spotted this wee one through the sea of bubbles he was blowing from the sidelines.

All ages gathered along the procession route, making sure they got a good spot.

It was a family affair for three generations who enjoyed the procession together.

A future Queen and champion perhaps? They picked a perfect spot on the pavement.

Rounds of applause in the Glebe as the presentees performed perfectly.

Families made a day of it and some even brought their own seating. Quite right too!

This wee one made sure she stood out in the crowd with her incredible shades.

Hip Hip! We're sure that's what this couple are saying as they enjoyed the show.

No-one could put these girls in the shade and they were fair enjoying themselves.

Peace to you too – we hope these folks had their Best Day of the Year.

Flying the flag for Scotland and his home town, this wee one got a lift up from dad.

This guy wanted to monkey around for the cameraman – and who are we to complain?!

Last year's Queen, Lexi Scotland looked incredible in her beautiful green dress.

Queen Ella Black with her pages Oliver Hughes and Zach Stirling.

Commentators Natalie Wilkinson and Isla Cadman prepare for their moment on the stage.

Fair committee chairman Frank McGarry with Crowning Lady Diane McBride.