

Spotlight on...

It was a big day for these youngsters as they finally played their role as Queen Ella Black became the 116th girl to be crowned at the 2024 Bo'ness Children's Fair Festival. Photographer Michael Gillen captured the royal occasion in the Glebe.

Crown bearer Kian Morrison looks a picture of concentration as he carries the incredible head gear to the stage.

2024 Queen Ella Black from Deanburn Primary School looks as pretty as a picture as crowning Lady Diane McBride does the honours.

Sceptre Bearer Nathan Holmes makes his way to the stage, carrying out his duties with royal aplomb.

Fair Day Crowning

Champion Tyler James Love was word perfect as he carried out his duties in style in the Glebe.

Queen of the Fairies Yasmin Komorowski looked magical as she made her way through the crowds.

Oliver Hughes (left) and Zach Stirling had a big role to play as the Queen's pages, ensuring her train remained spotless.

Queen of the Flower Girls Lois Morrison looked a vision in a beautiful blue dress, perfect for the occasion.
