

A flashback to the 1950s, complete with a cracking turquoise blue classic car which drew many admiring glances.

Another flashback in time, it's hard to believe that the 1990s were actually 30 years ago now. Scary!

Luckily, officers were able to enjoy the day as everyone simply wanted to enjoy themselves.

Disney's villainous characters were out in force but didn't cast any nasty spells on the crowds lining the route!

Simply too cute not to include, these wee fairies will forever remember June 28, 2024, for their starring role in the Fair.

Procession is a true spectacle

Hundreds of children and adults took part in the 2024 procession as it made its way from the Glebe to Douglas Park for the afternoon entertainment.

Bo'ness Rugby Club members have long supported the town's Fair Day and this year was no different, with a colourful cast of characters celebrating the Rhinos! (Pics: Michael Gillen)

All eyes were on the 2024 Queen, Deanburn Primary School pupil Ella Black, as she was transported on her throne.

It wouldn't be a procession without the appearance of Linlithgow's Reed Band members.

From babes in pushchairs to grans and grandads, the beauty of the Fair is that it brings generations of families together to celebrate the Best Day of the Year – and the 2024 edition was a cracker!

The procession route is always alive with music thanks to the many bands enlisted by the Fair committee.

Pipe band members ensure that Scotland is well and truly represented along the procession route.

One of 12 bands which took part in this year's procession, Bo'ness and Carriden Band did the town proud.

Unison Kinneil Band are always delighted to play at home and never more proud to do so than on Fair Day.
